Dear Friend Garrison

I thank you for writing that I would do all I could
for Mrs Matthews - I
only wish I had money
to carry him through the Harvard School of Medicine Under the present regime they have no free students any more than six the other departments
of the University

time of
At the present Canal
this place is
is almost impossible to get any work any where and I frankly
told him that I thought he would do better any where than here - I was sorry to feel
obliged thus to speak
but was compelled
by stern fact & duty.

With the highest regard and most delightful
reminiscences of our former labors together
I remain

Ever sincerely yours
